Do you or your spouse have a successful business, sizable inheritance, or debts that you would like to keep separate? If so, consider a prenuptial agreement.
 Do you plan on having children and want yourself or your spouse to stay home to raise the children? If so, consider your ability to pay for a major purchase (such as a house) and maintain your desired lifestyle on one income.

	OTHER ISSUES	YES	NO
>	 Were you or your spouse previously married? If so, consider the following: Note any claim an ex-spouse may have on assets. If there are support obligations, consider how they will impact cash flow. Note the impact of remarriage on Social Security benefits.
>	 Do you or your spouse have children from a previous marriage? If so, consider the following: Carefully structure your estate plan to balance the interests of and protect your spouse and your collective children. A prenuptial agreement is likely advisable. Plan how to fairly fund the needs of minor children (e.g., education funding) and coordinate with agreements and obligations of ex-spouses. If the children from the previous marriage are minors and will be attending college soon, financial aid for FAFSA schools will be based on the income and assets of the custodial parent.
>	Are you or your spouse planning to change names? If so, be sure to take all proper legal steps, and make global updates (Social Security, driver's license, passport, financial accounts, etc.).
>	Are there state-specific issues that should be considered, such as living in a community property state?
